

PUBLIC MEETINGS SCHEDULED

The first round of public information meetings for the transit study are scheduled for February 25, 2016. The purpose of the meetings will be to gather firsthand input on travel needs that are not being met and to discuss how transit may support these needs. In addition, information on various potential concepts will be discussed.

*There will be two meetings held on Thursday, February 25, 2016
You are encouraged to attend one of these meeting*
